Re: Motors Liquidation Company, et al. - Case No. 09-50026-reg
Claim No. 28820

Dear Judge Gerber:

We represent Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the “GUC Trust”), the successor to Motors Liquidation Company (formerly known as General Motors Corporation) in the above mentioned bankruptcy proceeding. We write in connection with Your Honor’s request that the GUC Trust and Dr. Shah (holder of Claim No. 28820, the “Claim”) settle an order reflecting this Court’s decision dated August 6, 2012, disallowing and expunging the Claim (the “Opinion”).

The GUC Trust provided Dr. Shah with a copy of a draft proposed order (the “Proposed Order”) by email and mail on or about August 7, 2012. We explained to Dr. Shah, both verbally and in writing, that the Proposed Order must reflect the Opinion, and that his consent to the Proposed Order would not affect his right to appeal the relief granted by the Court. Nevertheless, on August 16, 2012, Dr. Shah submitted a detailed objection to the substance of Proposed Order, which challenges the Opinion itself (the “Order Objection”). The Order Objection is not only procedurally inappropriate, but also baseless in every respect.

In light of the foregoing, the GUC Trust respectfully submits the Proposed Order for entry by the Court. The GUC Trust submits that the Proposed Order is consistent with the Opinion.
